

The Mosquitoes Must Die: a MasterClass with Profs. Hilary Ranson & Corine Ngufor

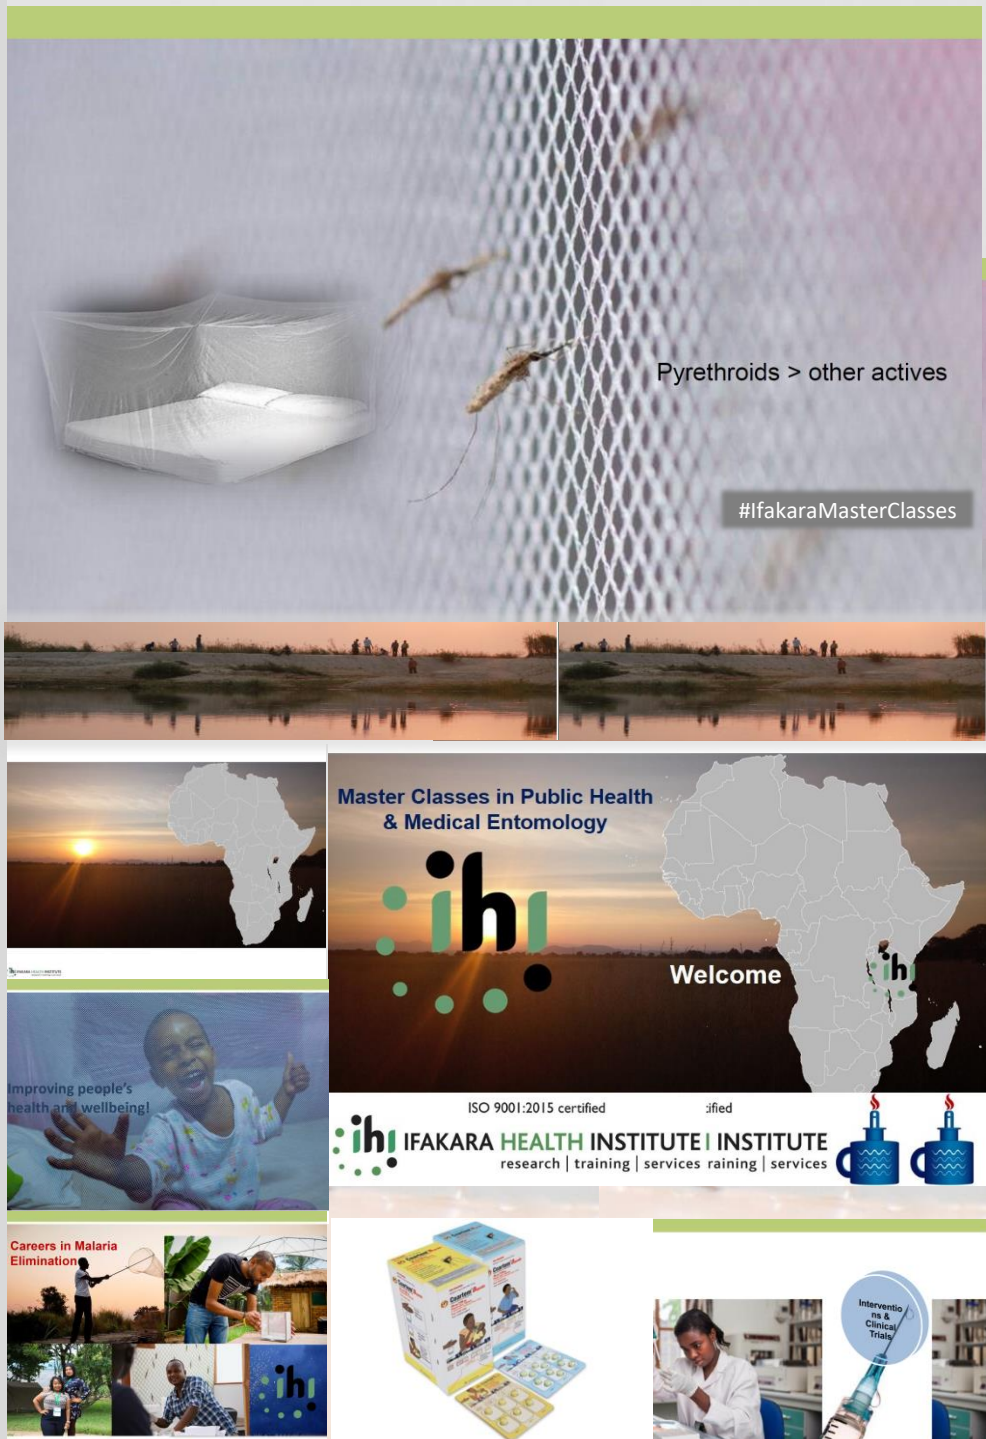

Ifakara MasterClasses in Public Health & Medical Entomology
Episode XIX: Wednesday, March 31st 2021; Starting 2pm East African Time

Hosted by Sheila Ogoma (CHAI) & Fredros Okumu (Ifakara Health Institute)

1. Epidemiological impact of insecticide treated nets (ITNs) & Indoor Residual Spraying (IRS)
2. Impact of Insecticide Resistance on Malaria Control
3. Insecticide Resistance Management Strategies (~ and some considerations from agriculture)
4. Surviving the Insecticide Treadmill
5. The Future ITNs & IRS
6. PBO Nets, Nets with Multiple Actives & Improved IRS formulations
7. Monitoring the quality of ITNs and IRS
8. Testing & Prequalification Pathways for new ITN & IRS products
9. The Functional Life of Bed Nets (Attrition, Bio-efficacy, Chemical Content & Durability)
10. Mentorship, Careers & Capacity Building

Register in advance: <https://tneret-ortz.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZlucuuqrDijEtAQPVPk8j&sixO4MOeThUnG>

Pyrethroids > other actives

#ifakaraMasterClasses

Master Classes in Public Health & Medical Entomology

ih!

Welcome

ISO 9001:2015 certified

IFAKARA HEALTH INSTITUTE | INSTITUTE

research | training | services raining | services

Improving people's health and wellbeing!

Careers in Malaria Elimination

Interventions & Clinical Trials